Trivia Rush — Host Script

A 10-minute social round · about 10 questions · 2+ players

Before the meeting (2 minutes)

1. Choose category and difficulty. When creating the room, pick a category (or mixed) and a difficulty. General knowledge, geography, science, and food are the safest defaults for mixed groups.
2. Seed the chat. Paste the invite into the chat and wait for players to appear in the lobby.
3. Share your screen. Share the host view so everyone sees the question and the reveal.

Run of show

When	You do	What to say / do
0:00	Welcome	“Ten quick questions. Answer on your own device and pick the answer you think is right.”
Each question (~60 s)	Read, wait, reveal	Read the question aloud. Give people a moment, then reveal. Read the explanation line: it is often more interesting than the answer.
After question 3 and 6	Call the leader	Name the current leader and keep the tone light so people near the bottom stay in.
After the last question	Finish Game	Congratulate the top three, thank everyone, and move to the agenda.

Facilitation tips

- Keep it to about ten questions in a meeting slot. Longer belongs in social time.
- Mixed difficulty keeps everyone in: easy questions keep people playing, hard ones separate the leaders.
- Avoid niche categories (sports, regional pop culture) unless you know the room.
- Starting a brand-new team? Warm up with Would You Rather first.
