Would You Rather — Host Script

A 5-minute meeting opener · 3–5 rounds · 2+ players

Before the meeting (2 minutes)

1. Create the room. Go to meeting-games.com, choose Would You Rather, and create a room. Use “Copy meeting chat invite” in the lobby.
2. Seed the chat. Paste the invite into the meeting chat one or two minutes before you start. Wait until at least two players appear in the lobby.
3. Share your screen. Put the room on the shared screen so everyone sees the same question and the same reveal.

Run of show

| When | You do | What to say / do |
|---|---|---|
| 0:00 | Welcome | “Quick warm-up, no right answers. Open the link in the chat on your phone or laptop and pick a nickname.” |
| 0:45 | Start game | “Pick the one you would really choose. I will read each question out loud.” |
| Each round (~45 s) | Read, wait, reveal | Read the question once. Stay quiet while the voted counter fills. Then: “Most of us picked this one. Anyone on the other side want to say why?” Take one comment, then Next Question. |
| After round 3–5 | Finish Game | “Thanks, that is the warm-up. Let’s get into the agenda.” |

Facilitation tips

- One comment per reveal. Going around the room turns a warm-up into a meeting.
- Stop while it is still fun: 3–5 rounds is a warm-up, 10 is an activity.
- If a prompt lands badly, move on without comment. There are no wrong answers, so you never have to defend a result.
- Not enough energy? Switch to This or That for a lighter pace.
